Dear Parents,

As part of Seachtain na Gaeilge which takes place in our school this week, we have invited Marian Ní Chonghaile to do some Sean Nós dancing with the children on Friday the 14th of March. The school is covering the cost of this.

In keeping with the minister Ruairí Quinn's requests we are reviewing our anti bullying procedures and compiling a cyber bullying policy. In the coming weeks the teachers will be discussing the AUP policy with pupils. Mrs. Hession will be attending an anti bullying workshop and we will also have a guest speaker to talk to the children about safe internet usage.

As part of our SSE programme we are currently evaluating the standard of maths in our school. We would appreciate your input here and ask that you complete the following questionnaire and return it to the school as soon as possible.

There will be a student teacher in Miss O'Connor's room carrying out her final teaching practice with 3rd & 4th class. Miss Conroy will be commencing her TP on the 28th of April for a five week block.

Well done and good luck to Yana Nungesser who is representing the school on the 11th of March in the national Spelling Bee competition.
