- How attendance will be monitored

Recording and Reporting

It is the responsibility of the school principal/deputy principal to keep an accurate record of the students' attendance at the school and the reasons for any failure to attend. Teachers should maintain accurate class rolls and take responsibility for student absences within their classes. Late arrivals and early departures should also be recorded. The school attendance of individual pupils is recorded on Alladin on a daily basis along with individual class attendances which are recorded in the online version of the Leabhar Tinrimh In addition each student is registered on POD (Primary Online Database) along with details of:

- Name.
- Address.
- Date of Birth.
- PPSN.
- Nationality.
- Ethnic/Cultural Background.
- Religion.
- Class Standard.
- Teacher's Name.

If a pupil does not attend on a day when the school is open for instruction, his/her nonattendance will be recorded by the class teacher in the Leabhar Rolla online. The roll call is taken each day after 11 O' Clock break. Any pupil not present will be marked absent for the day, unless a parent has given prior notice of a child's late start to the school day (for example where a child might attend a doctor's appointment, dental appointment etc..) A note from parents/guardians is required to explain each absence. Such notes will be retained by the school. Parents/guardians must also provide a note if a child departs early during the school day and is required to attend school at a later time than the school commencement time.

- Late arrivals and early departures are recorded by the class teacher.
- Teachers will alert the principal if there are concerns about student absences.
- Parents/guardians are informed in writing at the end of year report of the total number of absences during the school year.
- Pupils whose non-attendance is a concern are invited to meet with the Principal/Teacher during Parent/Teacher meetings and are informed of the school's concerns.

The school must inform the Education Welfare Officer in writing, where a child has missed 20 or more days in a school year, where attendance is irregular, where a pupil is removed from the school register and where a child is suspended or expelled for 6 days or more.

- Target Setting a Whole School Approach

Gortjordan National School promotes and encourages full attendance by all our students. This ethos is communicated to all members of our school community and promoted through :

1. Parent Teacher meetings.
2. B.O.M. meetings.
3. Staff meetings.
4. Our school newsletters.
5. Our website www.gortjordanns.com

6. The daily recording of attendance/nonattendance by school staff in the Leabhar Rolla online (Alladin).

- Procedures for Notification of Student absences to the School

When a student is absent from school during part of a school day or for a school day or for more than a school day, section 18 of the Education (Welfare) Act 2000 places a legal duty on parents to notify the class teacher about the reasons for the child's absence. Section 23 of the Act requires that the procedures to be followed by a parent for notifying the school about absence must be formalised by the school and form part of the school's Code of Behaviour.

Guidance regarding notification of absences will be put in writing and communicated to all parents and to other members of the school community, including students. Among the main requirements/procedures to be set out are:

- School opening times: 9.10 am – 1:50 pm (Infant Class).
- 9.10am – 2:50 pm (1st – 6th class).
- Parents should advise the school about absence prior to the event (if possible) or when the student returns to school (when absence is unexpected or unforeseen) or during the absence (if longer than 1-2 days).
- Class Teacher is to be informed either by phone call, or note, or note in the students homework journal.
- The time/date of the students return to school should be communicated to the class teacher (if possible/known).
- Explanation of a student's late arrival to school.
- Communication/explanation if a student needs to leave school early/before the end of the school day.

- Responding to Poor Attendance

Section 17 of the Education (Welfare) Act (2000) states: 'The parent of a child shall cause the child concerned to attend a recognised school on each day'.

Section 21 of the act obliges schools to inform the Education Welfare Officer if a child is absent on more than 20 days in any school year, or if a child does not attend school on a regular basis.

In such cases the Education Welfare Officer (following all reasonable efforts by the Education Board to consult with the child's parents and the Principal of the school) may serve a 'School Attendance Notice' on any parent who he/she concludes is failing or neglecting to cause the child to attend the school. A successful case taken against the parent may result in a fine and/or imprisonment.

Reasons for absence are recorded and reported to the EWB five times during school year through the online system. An annual report is submitted – not more than six weeks following the end of the school year – detailing the overall level of attendance at the school during that school year.

- Strategies used in the Event of Poor Attendance

- Contacting parents on an informal basis when a child is absent regularly.
- Discussing school attendance with the student (where appropriate), with a view to finding an explanation for the absence and thereby a solution.
- Supporting pupils through the school Care Team (Principal, Deputy Principal, SEN Teacher).
- In the event of prolonged absence/irregular attendance the school will request a meeting with the child and or parent to try to identify and resolve any barriers to attendance.
- Contacting the N.E.W.B.

1. It is the responsibility of the Principal, Deputy Principal, SEN teacher and where applicable substitute/Temporary/Fixed Term teachers to implement this policy under the guidance of the school's B.O.M.

- Inform parents of a decision to contact the Education Welfare Officer of concerns regarding a pupil.
- Insofar as is practicable, promote the importance of good school attendance among pupils, parents and staff.
